RED JACKET TRAIL

RED JACKET CENTRAL
MANCHESTER, NEW YORK

NOTICE!

You are invited to share an intimate glimpse of the trail which the young people of this community follow through the stages of elementary and secondary school education. Into this trail, converge many by-paths, each one directed toward some phase of physical, mental, social, or moral development.

Here are embedded the footprints of some 845 students, varying in ages from 5-19; 10 administrators; 41 faculty members; and 17 other adults engaged in daily service to the school.

Here too, though less distinct, but extremely vital, are the definite prints of parents and friends who help us constantly along the way toward our ultimate destination--that of preparation for embarking as good citizens upon a more complex thoroughfare--the road to be travelled in adult living.

MISS CLARA M. JOHNSON Elmira College, A. B. Middlebury College, A. M.

Dedication

Because of our respect for her high scholastic standards and our admiration of her fine cultural attributes, we the members of the Class of '54, respectfully dedicate this issue of "Red Jacket Trail" to Miss Clara Johnson.

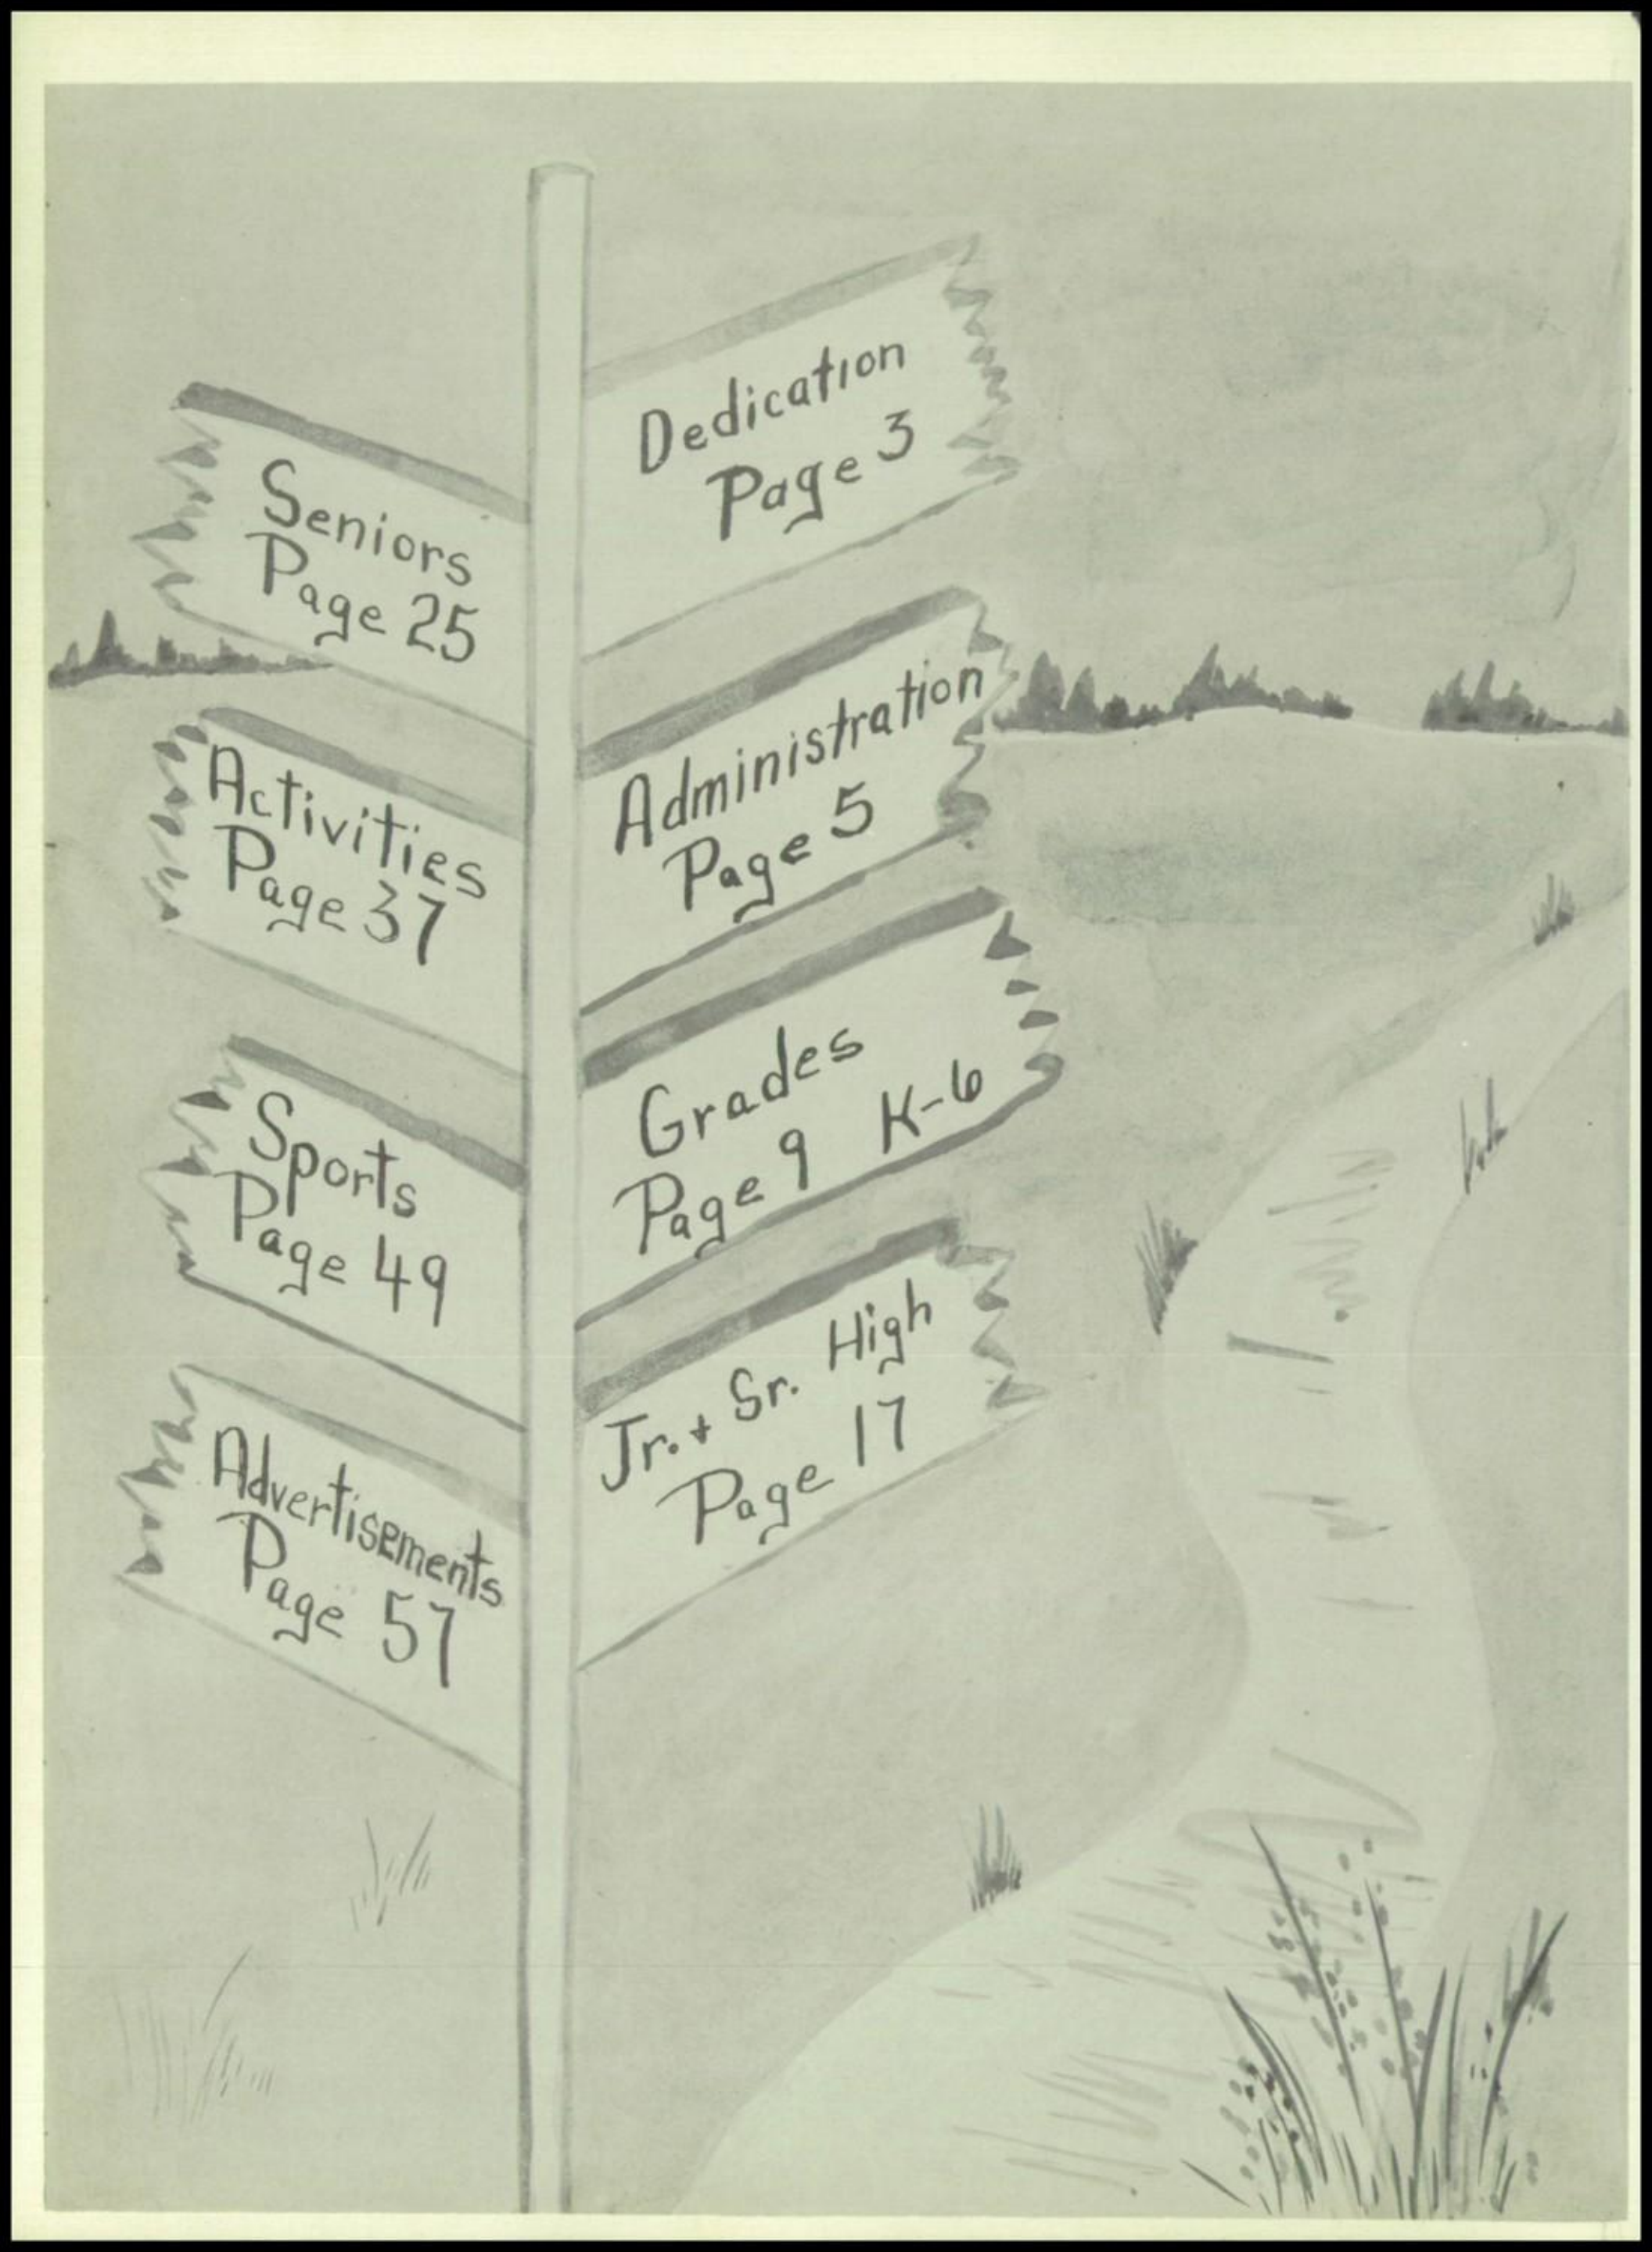

This is Miss Johnson's twentieth year of teaching in our vicinity. She is best known by students in class rooms of French, Latin, and English, and at the piano as accompanist for choral groups. Her versatility extends itself into community living as she donates generously of her time and talents to church affairs and activities of the Eastern Star and Rebekah Lodges, as well as other clubs and local organizations.

In her travels, which include two trips to Europe, Miss Johnson has visited points of interest in several countries, has sojourned in many of the picturesque islands, and has toured the United States and Canada extensively. She records the highlights of these tours in photographic slides in color and fluently accompanies the projection of each in a most interesting fashion with detailed descriptive accounts, which enable the viewer to share her experiences.

Miss Johnson is an exponent of routine, order and careful planning. She succeeds in attaining goals which she sets for herself by rigidly adhering to the means by which they may be achieved.

As yet we have heard of no plans which Miss Johnson may be contemplating for "travel through space"; however, we do know that she expects to spend two years on a trip around the world when she has retired from her profession.

In expressing our hopes for Miss Johnson's future success and happiness, it seems most fitting that we say merely, "BON VOYAGE;"

Administration

Superintendent

We pause to pay tribute to our superintendent, Mr. John Loveless, whose accomplishments and friendly smile have become synonymous with the Second Supervisory District of Ontario County.

MR. JOHN E. LOVELESS

Board of Education

It is the working together of many minds, the combination of much labor, and the determination of great efforts to a good cause that have culminated in the successful educational leadership at Red Jacket Central School. Many thanks to these men whose forethought assures us of adequate guidance in our travels along the trail.

STANDING: Mr. Max Morris, Mr. Neil Harkenrider, Mr. Daniel Chapman. SEATED: Mr. Joseph Volpe, Mr. Paul Gersbach, Mr. Albert Crowley, Mr. Browning Crowell, Dr. John Crowther. ABSENT: Mr. George Glover.

PRINCIPAL---Mr. Harkenrider, or "Harky", as we affectionately call him, has served us formerly as teacher in Math and Physics. Now he has assumed the duties of principal of Red Jacket, and we are proud to have graduated under the leadership of this kind, understanding, progressive and energetic gentlemen. He leaves to us this message; "The best road to success is hard work and modest living. The class of '54 has my best wishes for success and happiness."

GUIDANCE COUNSELOR---Doctor, lawyer, merchant, chief? Mr. Spangle guides the students in our school along the proper paths of learning, so that they may intelligently prepare themselves for their life-time careers.

SECRETARY---From typewriter to file, from telephone to counter, Mrs. Jones busily serves many people in the office at Red Jacket. We trust that this, her first year, has been a pleasant one.

VICE-PRINCIPAL---Mr. Contant, who was our Commercial teacher last year, is now busier than ever with his new post as Vice-Principal. He shares Mr. Harkinrider's responsibilities and is an extremely capable and likable young administrator

The Freshmen have done a good job of adjusting themselves to high school life. Under the guidance of Miss Johnson and Mrs. Twenty-five, they are planning to have a vic dance. The upper classmen usually get the best of the extracurricular program, but their turn is coming.

They are well represented in band and chorus, and have three representatives on the J. V. basketball team and three on the cheerleading squads.

Not Too Young,
Not Too Old,
Not Too Shy,
Not Too Bold,

These are the Sophomores and as the ditty says, they are just a bit beyond the Freshman stage of inexperience, yet they have not acquired the wisdom of the Juniors and Seniors.

We have been well represented in both sports and all phases of music.

We would like to express our appreciation to our advisors, Miss Connaughton and Mr. Brooks.

These people will take our places next year, increasing their class activities and sponsoring several financial projects. We bequeath to them the fine cooperation which we have enjoyed from our many fine friends in this community.

These juniors, as a group, have a fine scholastic rating and participate in many extra-curricular activities. Their president and vice-president, Don Deyo, and Jim Boardman respectively, hold the two highest offices in the Student Council, only with titles in reverse according Jim the honor of being president

Best of luck to our successors-- members of the Class of '55.

Thirteen years ago, most of the seniors first set foot upon their trail of learning. Some spent their early years in Shortsville, and some in Manchester, but we all met on common ground to take our first regents together in the eighth grade and to begin our adventures in Senior High School.

When we were lowly freshmen, some of our members strayed from the beaten path, exploring many of the by-paths of extra-curricular activities. We were represented on the basketball teams, cheerleading squads, music organizations, and even in the senior play. Our officers were: Francis Walker, Emily Diazio, Phil Gilligan, and Carl Romeiser. We had one main activity to launch our money-making campaign, a round and square dance which we believed at the time, to be as glamorous as the most festive of balls.

In our sophomore year, we were even more well represented in sports and other extra-curricular activities. We sponsored a hayride, and a Vic dance. Our officers were: Francis Walker, Dan O'Donnell, Don Geise, and Carl Romeiser.

When we were juniors, we really took the money-making proposition seriously and added considerably to our treasury as the result of a variety of activities such as: a Harvest Festival; two skating parties; the Junior Prom; Vic dances; and occasional food concessions. We quickened our pace along the trail in anticipation of that not too distant dream--the Senior Trip. Dick Geise, Bernadine Keyes, and Carl Romeiser were our officers.

Then came September of 1953 and we had attained that long coveted prominence accorded to seniors. We made impressive footprints into the far recesses of our school district community as we began our schedule of events with a magazine sales campaign. Competition ran high between our two teams, headed by Susan Warfield and Patty Ryan, and we succeeded in topping a high goal which we had set for ourselves.

"We Shook the Family Tree," our senior play, proved to be a pleasurable project as well as a profitable one. We are grateful to Mrs. Williams for acting as our director for this production.

The highlight of our social season was our Senior Ball, White Christmas, an affair which we will not soon forget.

Aided greatly by the concessions at games, we had enough money at the half-year period for our trip to New York. Without our advisors, Mrs. Lamphier, Miss Arnold, and Mr. Contant--and our officers, Dick Geise, Francis Walker, Bernadine Keyes, and Gary Hall, who have combined their talents and efforts in guiding our activities, our achievements would have been seriously threatened.

As we blaze new trails, however distant, we are certain to enjoy recalling the many experiences which were ours at Red Jacket.

Honor Society

The members of the National Honor Society are selected by a faculty committee after careful consideration in behalf of each candidate on the basis of scholarship, character, leadership, and service.

This is a most cherished award for any student and reflects great credit to himself, and to the school which he represents.

This year's Student Council, headed by Jim Boardman and Don Deyo, has accomplished a great deal and has been a credit to Red Jacket.

Our corridors have been dressed up by two new bulletin boards and a trophy case. Assembly programs varying in subject material from lectures, musical entertainments, magic demonstrations and puppet shows, have been sponsored by the council. One of the highlights of the year was the annual Christmas program featuring local talent.

Members of the student council served as guides and ticket sellers at the basketball games, and made arrangements for transportation to out-of town contests.

Probably most outstanding among the achievements of this group is the constitution which it has drawn up which will govern classes and clubs for years to come. Plans were also formulated for the publication of a student handbook to be issued in the fall of the year.

On March 10, the group played host to the Ontario County Student Council Association. Much work was put into this meeting and the efforts were well rewarded. Several discussion groups were held after which dinner was served by the F. H. A. girls with entertainment by the Red Jacket Aires.

Mr. Harkenrider, Miss Arnold, and Mrs. Williams guided the activities of this organization. It represents one of the most effective "guide posts" along our trail.

TRAIL STAFF OF 1954

The staff of "Red Jacket Trail" proudly presents this year's issue which, it hopes, will record in pictures and writing, a series of memories of the school year of 1953-1954.

Excellent training for responsibilities which need to be assumed in later life, may be derived from the varied assignments relative to the editing of a year book.

Members of the staff extend their appreciation to Mrs. Lamphier for her guidance in the general layout, and literary composition of the book; and to Miss Arnold for her supervision of finances.

The success of our combined efforts will be determined by the pleasure which this book brings to our readers.

This year 'Smoke Signals' has been published bi-monthly. The staff has enjoyed putting the paper out and we hope that the readers have profited from our efforts.

Now I want to thank our advisor, Miss Connaughton for all of her helpful hints and tireless efforts in the 'Smoke Signals' production.

Senior Play

"We Shook the Family Tree", a comedy on the life of a typical family, was very ably directed by Mrs. David Williams. Mr. Williams proved invaluable as scenery technician.

The play was presented with finesse by our young actors and the audience responded with great hilarity at the many humorous difficulties which seemed to engulf our "Family". We hope that these pictures will serve as a lasting memory to all those who viewed the play.

And now for the make up.

Our travels along "the trail," are generously accompanied by instrumental music. Mr. Anzalone gives individual instructions to approximately 100 students, on as many as 14 different instruments. Three organizations now gather for group performance under his baton. They are: Beginners' Band, Junior Band, and Senior Band. These groups lend a hand to one another; for, occasionally the seniors play with the juniors and vice-versa, thus exemplifying the spirit of cooperation in the matter of developing skill and confidence.

"Handsome is as handsome does," might now apply to our Senior Band members; for, thanks to the Board of Education, who provided them with striking new uniforms of red and white, their appearance rating has soared to A-1. We feel, too, that the quality of their performance justifies the pride which we take in seeing them so fashionably clad.

The bands have presented two concerts during the year and prepared several numbers for adjudication at the State Festival at Pittsford.

Mr. Anzalone's talent and enthusiasm together with the steady influx of new members who are eager and conscientious, insure continued high performance in our band in the years to come.

The Vocal Music Department of Red Jacket has three outstanding groups this year; namely, Junior Chorus, Senior Chorus, and the Red Jacket Aires. The latter is a newly formed organization with its 17 members smartly attired in red and black uniforms.

The combined talents of our vocalists, under the direction of Mr. Strause, have served our school and our community well.

Much time was consumed in preparation for the Spring Festival held at Pittsford in May. This climaxed a year well spent in vocal training and performance.

Miss Johnson, as accompanist, contributes appreciably to the success of our choruses.

F.H.A.

The Future Homemakers of America in Red Jacket has an active membership of 43. Our purpose is to work for good home and family life and develop creative leadership in home and community. This year our activities included representation at the district rallies, a Mother and Daughter Dinner, a Hobo Hop, and food sales.

F.F.A.

The Future Farmers of America of "FFA" as it is commonly called, is the National Organization of, by, and for boys studying Vocational Agriculture in public secondary schools.

The Red Jacket chapter plays a very definite part in our school curriculum. All members learn through active participation how to conduct and take part in a public meeting, and how to speak in public. The members learn to buy and sell cooperatively. FFA boys learn to solve their own problems by having a supervised farming program on the home farms.

In all our activities, whether it is showing cattle at the State Fair, taking part in the Speaking Contest given during the Horticulture Show in Rochester, or in every day school activities, we strive to develop character, sportsmanship and citizenship.

For the first time, the Library Club includes students from Junior High School. We like having this group represented on our staff. The return of Autumn weather saw the Indians hard at work on the grid iron. With eight veteran lettermen, Coach Linsner built up a well balanced team. Lacking in weight, the team made up for this deficiency in speed and aggressiveness. The Indians came up with a 4-1 record which was good enough for second place in league standing.

The team ran into difficulty against several teams, but their determination kept them fighting to the very end affording them a very successful season. They win in our popularity poll.

Varsity Basketball

L. TO R.: L. Lush, D. Geise, M. Geise, J. Boardman, G. Owens, D. O'Donnell, E. Wasson, B. D'Arduini, R. Herman, F. Walker, J. Ross, KNEELING—Coach Linsner.

Again as in the past, Red Jacket has an outstanding team. It has an advantage this year since there are several three year men and few rookies.

The Indians face strong opposition, but have an excellent chance of winning the championship.

Baseball

L. TO R., FIRST ROW: S. Corino, B. White, J. Ross, L. Schaefer, P. Gilligan, L. Lush. SECOND ROW: Coach Linsner, R. Geise, R. Herman, I. Liberati, M. Geise, F. Walker, R. Williams, D. Geise. THIRD ROW: M. Bolan, J. Boardman, V. Del Gotto, E. Wasson, D. O'Donnell, G. Hall, B. D'Arduini, E. Newcombe, C. Romeiser.

Bowling

This year the Red Jacket Bowling Team is fortunate to have two interested advisors, Mr. Natoli and Mr. Saltzer. Using Palymra as their home alleys, these boys, some of whom have been on the team for 2 or 3 years, have managed thus far to take third place in the league against such seasoned opponents as Geneva and Canandaigua. We predict from this group many keglers of prominence.

L. TO R.: G. Hall, V. Del Gatto, C. Romeiser, C. Volpe, I. Liberati, A. Liberati.

After hours.

Crazy man, crazy!

"MARCH ON"

Thoughtfully we close the door
On this last page of familiar lore.
Far too swiftly the hours
sped by,
As even now the echoes die.
Then must we face a strange
new day
And question not those who say,
"March on"

We should like to take this opportunity to express our grateful appreciation to those whose names appear on the following pages. It is because these people so generously contributed to our advertising section that we were able to edit the kind of book we wanted Red Jacket to have.

We hope you will take time to read the ads and whenever possible, make your purchases from these people.
